

Pharmacist's Letter keeps you current on new developments in drug therapy. New Rx drugs... OTC drugs...newly recognized drug interactions...new uses for older drugs...new cautions...and news about "natural" remedies.

Stay up to date in the most time-saving way. Pharmacist's Letter gives you all the significant news. We sift through all the press releases...medical articles...seminar abstracts...websites...gov't reports...and condense it for quick reading.

Get facts you can trust. Pharmacist's Letter cuts through the drug company hype...the managed care influence, etc. We're completely independent. We do not have connections with any drug company and do not accept outside advertising or support.

Need more details on any subject we've covered? Our editors write a Detail-Document for every subject. You can get Detail-Documents free from our website or by contacting our office.

Pharmacist's Letter CE-in-the-Letter is done online. You can take any quiz...instantly get your score...see what quizzes you've taken...see total credits...reprint any Statement of Credit...etc. You get a personal CE account to manage whenever you want.

Plus, you get Pharmacist's Letter PDA. Download the latest info on your PDA. Find topics... read articles...pull up charts...take CE...etc. Take the website with you, wherever you go.
