

Jay E. Peckham

Jay E. Peckham, 72, Frankfort, died June 30, 2009, at Reno, Nev.

A service will be at 10 a.m. Thursday, July 9, at the United Methodist Church, Frankfort. The Rev. Norma Jeane Miller, the Rev. Jim Shaughnessy and the Rev. Richard Coleman will officiate.

Carol Hood, organist, will accompany the Sweet Adelines singing "Friends" and "Thank You Dear Lord for Music."

Visitation will be Wednesday from 4 until 8 p.m. at Padden Funeral Chapel, Frankfort.

The pallbearers will be Dale Musil, Glenn Holsapple, Phil Fetters, Mike Clark, George Feldhausen, Dale Nash, W.G. Standley and Dave Raseta.

Burial will be in the Sunset Cemetery, Manhattan.

Jay Peckham was born July 19, 1936, at Medford, Ore., the son of Jacob W. and Paulyne E. Newby Peckham.

He graduated from Wichita East High School and received a pharmacy degree from Kansas City University, Kansas City, Mo.

He co-owned Peckham Pharmacy for 25 years in Frankfort. He also worked for Wal-Mart Pharmacy, Horton Health Foundation, Community Memorial Healthcare and Kickapoo Nation Health Center.

He was on the Frankfort Community Care Home board of directors and the Twin Valley Developmental Services board of directors.

He served as a delegate to the annual conference for the Frankfort United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Sue; one daughter, Kai Louise Foor, Junction City; one son, Jef Lee Peckham, Washington, D.C.; and one sister, Polly Anne McMillan, Wichita.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Jay Peckham Pharmacy Scholarship-ESA Foundation and sent in care of Padden Funeral Chapel.

Marysville Advocate | July 9, 2009